

About Nayara Energy:

Nayara Energy is an integrated downstream company of international scale with strong presence across the hydrocarbon value chain from refining to retail. In August 2017, the company was acquired by international investors Rosneft (a leader of Russia's petroleum industry and the world's largest public oil and gas company by liquid hydrocarbon production and reserves) and an investment consortium comprising of global commodity trading firm Trafigura and UCP Investment Group.

Nayara Energy owns India's second largest single site refinery at Vadinar, Gujarat with a current capacity of 20MMTPA. It is one of the world's most modern and complex refineries with a complexity of 11.8, which is amongst the highest globally. Nayara Energy has become the fastest growing private sector fuel retail network in India. The company has over 5,500 operational retail outlets spread across India.
